New Sealing Regulations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-The Secretary of the Treasury has completed and signed rew sealing regulations for the government of American vessels during the coming sealing season in Bering sea. The regulations do not differ materially from those in force at Unalaska or Attou and there have their arms sealed up, or they may leave their arms at those points in charge of customs officers. They will also be required to display two vertical lights at night time. As Great Britain has declined to join the United States in establishing any regulathose just completed by the Secretary only apply to American sealers. If, however, Canadian or other British vessels violate the restrictions of the Paris award they will be dealt with on discovery as provided in that award.

In the Interest of American Citizens. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 .- Senator Squire of Washington, has introduced a bill which will greatly increase the usefulness, as naval reserve vessels, of many steamships carrying the American flag. Particularly does it improve the efficiency of the ocean greyhounds of the American line running to Southampton in case those vessels should be needed by the Navy Department. The bill provides that hereafter all the engineers of ocean steamers carrying American register shall be full-fledged citizens of our country; also that such engineers shall be declared officers. A careful investigation of the laws governing the merchant marine shows that it is possible, under a decision of the Secretary of the Treasury, for all ocean steamers carrying the American flag to have their engine room complement made up entirely of for-eigners who have simply declared their intention of becoming citizens of our country.

Confirmations by the Senate. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-The Senate in executive session to-day confirmed John L. to be brigadier general; Colonel William to be major general; Colonel Z. R. Bliss, to be Brigadier General; Colonel William P. Craighill, to be chief of engineers, and Colonel Thomas H. Stanton, to be pay-master-general. The nomination of General Coppinger was not confirmed, but passed over in order to allow other nomi-

war, save only the surrender of the British at Yorktown, was on Indiana soil. It points out in forcible and interesting manner that the capture of the British post at Vincennes in 1779 secured for the United States the vast territory northwest of the Ohio river. The narrative of these important historical events is interspersed with numerous interesting sketches of the men who participated in them and with other early events, mostly connected with early Indiana, which makes the whole interesting reading even for those who take no particular interest in history. The general reader will find interest, too, in the numerous fac similies of historical papers.-Indianapolis Journal. His Mission Was Political, and the Ex-Chancellor Urged More Restrictive Measures Against Socialism.

(Copyright, 1895, by the Associated Press.) BERLIN, Dec. 21.-Next to President and Senor Romero, the Mexican minister | Cleveland's message, Emperor William's here, to-day exchanged ratifications of the visit to Prince Bismarck at Friedricksrun treaty extending for one year, from Dec. has been the topic of the week here. Instead of being, as at first intimated, purely a visit of courtesy, his Majesty's call on the tween the United States and Mexico by ex-Chancellor appears to have been of prime political importance, for the news leaked out early in the week that the Emperor sought Yulee, through their agents here, have sold | the advice of Prince Bismarck on the Eastto the Austro-Hungarian gove ment for legation purposes, the handsome residence, No. 137 Connecticut avenue, the consideraern and Socialist questions. The German press at first refused to believe this, but it is now generally admitted to be perfectly correct. The matter reached the ears of the public by the indiscreet conversation of a high court official, to whom the Emperor personally confided the information, and later Prince Bismarck's own organ, the Hamburger Nachrichten, confirmed the statement. It is reported that Prince Bisinto the Reichstag, so soon as feasible, a new anti-Socialist bill, modeled on the bill of 1878, but containing more stringent provisions. The ex-Chancellor, it is also understood, counseled the acceptance of the resignation of Dr. Von Boetticher, the Imperial Secretary of State for the Interior, and Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, the Imperial Baron Marschall Von Bieber perial Minister for Foreign Affairs, whose resignations have been in the Emperor's pocket since spring. The Hamburger Nachrichten, during the course of several articles on the subject, discussed the imminent necessity of suppressing, by military action, the social revolution, which is believed to Prince Bismarck has accepted an invitation to attend the fetes on Jan. 18, the anniversary of the re-establishment of the empire. These celebrations will be highly mpressive, and on a large scale. The Emperor will review the guard corps, all attired in their new gray overcoats, on Tempelhof field. Prince Bismarck will stand on his right hand, and all the leading statesmen, princes and generals of the stirring times of 1870-71, who are still living, will be present. The banquet at the palace, which will follow, will be memorable for the toasts and orations which will mark the occasion. Prince Bismarck will follow his Majesty in a speech. Living pictures will also form part of the programme. A citizens' festival committee has been formed here and there will be a grand commmers at the Philharmonic Hall.

imperial mandate has been issued to the generals commanding the different army corps, forbidding all soldiers, under severe penalties, to divulge any matter pertaining to army communication. They are especially forbidden to furnish any information to the newspapers.

Everybody is preparing for Christmas.

The imperial family will pass it in the same manner as last year. A magnificent pine tree has been sent to Potsdam, from Count Von Mirbach's estate in East Prussia, for the use of the little people of the imperial family, and it will be illuminated with old-fashioned wax candles as well as with modern electric light on Christmas
